MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Henry A. Kissinger
SUBJECT: U.S. Actions in North Vietnam

Attached is a report on North Vietnamese reactions to the recent U.S. actions in North Vietnam.

25X1

[redacted] they move prisoners frequently but had no advance knowledge of the U.S. mission.

-- Since the raid many prisoners have been regrouped in the Hanoi area; however, some others have been moved south.

-- The North Vietnamese were upset about the raid and intend to play it in very low-key internally for prestige reasons.

-- The air attacks hurt because nearly all of their stockpiled supplies were in the open.
